From the subtle differences in vowel sounds to the precise articulation of consonants, you'll discover the secrets to speaking like a native. Imagine yourself effortlessly rolling your "r"s and mastering the elusive "th" sound.

Chapter 2: The Art of Sophisticated Syntax

GRAMMAR RULES

Grammar is the rules about how to speak and write in a language.

A list of five of the most common grammatical mistakes:

- 1 Subject Verb Agreement
Learners often get confused with using the appropriate form of the verb with the subject of the sentence.
For example: 'I live in Thailand' and 'He lives in Thailand' is the correct subject verb agreement of the verb 'to live'.
- 2 Possessive Nouns
Non-native speakers of the English are unsure about showing possession while writing or speaking in English.
For example: 'The book belonging to the girl' can also be referred to as 'The girl's book'.
- 3 Comparison of Adjectives
We add 'er' to compare short adjectives like pretty and thick; and we add 'more' for longer adjectives like handsome and intelligent.
- 4 Punctuation Mistakes
Punctuation errors, too, are very common, especially in the use of semicolons and commas.
- 5 Singular and Plural
Many new learners make mistakes in forming the plural form of singular nouns.
